CONFERENCE THEME

2025 marks the 30th anniversary of the Conference on Cultural Heritage and New Technologies.

30 Years of visions for the future Impacts of technology on cultural heritage

Our Open Call aims to uncover the latest insights from both the CHNT and wider scientific, professional and academic communities working in the heritage sector, welcoming new findings to shape an engaging conference at the forefront of contemporary discussions.

We welcome such works, investigating areas including inventory, research, documentation, conservation, management, dissemination and advocacy and policy-making.

We are looking forward to your proposals about topics of interest to you and provide these seed suggestions:

- Digitisation for Preservation
- Benefits and Dangers of Artificial Intelligence
- Digital Heritage
- Long-Term Data Storage
- Archiving, Data Reuse, FAIR
- Cultural Heritage for All: User-Friendly and Barrier-Free
- Dissonant Heritage
- Cultural Landscape Inventories
- Digital Storytelling
- Digital Archaeology
- Integrated Approaches to Tangible and Intangible Heritage
- Resilient Heritage
- Wicked Problems for Archaeologists (Schofield 2024)

CONFERENCE ORGANISATION

After years of successful management of the CHNT by Stadtarchäologie Vienna, the organisation of the conference is under new management. From 2021 onwards, the Conference on Cultural Heritage and New Technologies will be organised by CHNT-ICOMOS Austria a sister association of the Austrian National Committee of ICOMOS.

ICOMOS Austria

ICOMOS stands for “International Council on Monuments and Sites” and is an NGO that works worldwide for the protection, care and preservation of historic cultural heritage. ICOMOS was founded in 1965 in Krakow, Poland, following the adoption of the Venice Charter in 1964 at the Second Congress of Architects and Specialists of Historic Buildings. ICOMOS is involved as advisor and evaluator in the work of the World Heritage Committee and in the fulfilment of the UNESCO Convention on World Heritage. ICOMOS is organised into over 120 National Committees, which can be joined as individual members. In addition, ICOMOS has 28 International Scientific Committees that deal with specific topics of research, heritage conservation and heritage management.

The national committee of ICOMOS Austria currently has more than 80 individual members whose mandate is based on proven expertise in all disciplines related to heritage protection (architecture, history of art, archaeology, jurisprudence, restoration, material sciences, etc.). ICOMOS Austria is committed to the conservation of monuments, ensembles and cultural landscapes at national and international level. In order to advise experts and the public and to promote public interest in monument protection and conservation, ICOMOS Austria is active in the following areas, among others:

- Monitoring and information on monuments on the World Heritage List,
- Preparation and organisation of international colloquia and conferences on issues of monument protection and conservation,
- Publication of conference results and important policy papers on heritage conservation,
- Cooperation with other National Committees as well as with various national bodies (Association of State Monument Conservators, Austrian UNESCO Commission, BDA) and with international organisations (UNESCO, ICCROM, Council of Europe).
